The most important choice you make is to receive Jesus as your personal Saviour. John 1:12 says, "But as many as received Him, (Jesus) to them (you) gave He power (the right or privilege) to become the sons (a child) of God, even to them that believe on His name." If you have not done this but would like to, you can talk to God right now about it! If you have done this, please let your teacher know the next time you see them. Or if you any questions, ask your teacher to show you from the Bible how you can receive Jesus as your personal Saviour and have your sins forgiven.

If Jesus is your Saviour, you can be thankful even when things are hard. Think about your biggest problem. List two ways you can be thankful to God even though things are hard right now.
